Safety Awareness Training

As of the 1st January anyone who works, delivers or visits a construction site where there is any form of building occurring is now required by law to have their safety awareness training. This training replaces the Green Card and is also applicable to the owner builder and anyone that may enter the building site.

Where: The Boyup Brook Club

When: Thursday 8 February 2007

Time: 12.00pm to 5.00pm

Cost: MBA Members $45.00 Non Members $65.00

Snake Handling Course

We have been lucky to engage the services of the renowned Brian Bush who is an expert in venomous and non venomous snakes. He will be visiting us for a one off course to offer awareness training in the handling of local species.

A 2hr awareness session from 8.00am will teach you about snake behaviour, first aid, the place snakes hold in the environment which all helps to reduce anxiety around snakes.

A second session on handling snakes will take place after the awareness session. Due to demand there will be 2 of these special handling sessions teaching techniques for catching and relocating snakes. Limit of 10 people for each session.
