FAREWELL TO JAYNE

Having just finished her 12 month traineeship at the Telecentre, Jayne Cowan has already started her new career with MACNEILS Accountants. During her traineeship Jayne proved to be a wonderful asset to the Telecentre through her maturity, friendly nature and reliability. Jayne's career focus was finance and she demonstrated a strong understanding through her work with Westpac. The Telecentre would like to thank Jayne for her dedication and commitment and wish her well as she starts a new phase of her life.

THE GUN

ONLY A DAG WOULD MISS IT!

The Australian legend is deeply embedded with tales and myths from the shearing shed. This distinctive lifestyle has inspired the delightful play The Gun, which is filled with the iconic humour and shenanigans of outback Australia. The Boyup Brook Telecentre is proud to bring The Gun to Harvey Dickson's for a night of laughs that the all ages can enjoy.

The play tells the tale of "three Aussie blokes and one sheila who are bound together by nature's finest fibre-wool". The action begins when the boss is away on the last day of the season. Blue (Jacob Allen), Gus (Luke Hewitt) and Yakka (Quintin George), decide to have a shear off to see who is the true 'gun' of the shed, while Jess (Leanne Page), the love-struck rouseabout tries to keep things in order. What unfolds is a tale of love, life and humour as the cast break out into tongue-in-cheek songs such as Click go the needles and I sure have shorn some sheep.

When: Wednesday 14 May 2008

Where: Harvey Dickson's Country Music Centre

Time: Doors open at 6pm for meals and the 70 minute play starts at 7.30pm, with no interval. Licensed bar available.

Cost (play only): Adults $20, Concession $15, Family (2 adults 2 children) $50, Children (under 18) $10 (accompanied by an adult). Bookings are essential. Call the Boyup Brook Telecentre on 9765 1169 to book your seat. Table bookings available, so bring a few friends.

Brought to you by the Department of Culture and the Arts, Lotterywest, Heathway, Win Television, the Blue Room and the Boyup Brook Telecentre.
